Twelfth Place Wins Big at Dolphin Days Golf Tournament 91 Golfers Tee Up with Proceeds Donated to Big Island Charities

WAIKOLOA, HI – Being a signature event of the 12th Annual Dolphin Days Summer Fest, it seems only fitting that the big winners of Saturday's Dolphin Days Golf Tournament turned out to be the team finishing 12th overall (see results below).

The four-person team scramble was played under superb weather and course conditions at the par-72, 7,064-yard, Kings' Course at Waikoloa Beach & Golf Resort.

"Everything was perfect. The weather was beautiful, the Kings' Course is in fantastic shape and everyone enjoyed the spirit of camaraderie," said Ross Birch, Waikoloa's head pro for the Kings' Course. "It's a privilege to play golf under such marvelous conditions and know that it's all for a good cause here on the Big Island."

Under the tournament's fun and unique format, the 12th-place team of Patrick Carney, Jillie Diane, Anne Meier, and Michael Meier took home the grand prize with a seven-under score of 65, nine strokes behind the leader. Each team member earned a two-night stay at the Hilton Waikoloa Village, two-day pass to the Kohala Spa, one-hour spa treatment, and free entry into the 2007 Dolphin Days Golf Tournament.

Other winning teams received prizes ranging from golf equipment and free rounds of golf to restaurant gift certificates and logo items.

Ninety-one golfers took part in the tournament, with proceeds donated to the Hawaii Shriners Hospital for Children and Pacific Marine Life Foundation. Notable players teeing it up for charity included popular recording artist Jeffrey Osborne, former Kalapana saxophonist Michael Paulo, and Cincinnati Bengals Defensive Coordinator Chuck Bresnahan.

In addition to the prizes, all participating golfers received a gift bag and were treated to a continental breakfast and buffet lunch.
