Anna Jang Wins U.S. Women's Amateur Sectional Qualifying
Tournament at Waikoloa Kings' Course
Tammy Surtees Also Qualifies for Next Month's U.S. Women's Amateur Championship

WAIKOLOA, HI - Anna Jang, 15, of Aiea on Oahu, won today's 2007 U.S. Women's Amateur Sectional Qualifying Tournament at Waikoloa Beach & Golf Resort, shooting a one-under par, 71, on the 6,302-yard Kings' Course.

Jang, a junior-to-be at Punahou High School, credits her appreciation for the greens for her recent success on the Kings' Course. In May she won the HHSAA State Championship. "I really like these greens and I putted well today."

Finishing second was Tammy Surtees, 17, of Waikoloa. Tammy qualified for the Amateur last year where she was the sectional qualifying medalist at Waikoloa's Beach Course. She is also a long-time participant in the Waikoloa Junior Golf program.

Honolulu's Stephanie Kono earned the first alternate position, with Kahalui's, Kelcie Kawano being named second alternate (see list of golfers and scores below).

By earning the top two spots, both Jang and Surtees will now move on to compete in the 2007 U.S. Women's Amateur Championship, which takes place at the Crooked Stick Golf Club in Carmel, Indiana, August 6-12.

"Hawaii has two wonderful and talented young ladies to represent the state at the nation's premier amateur tournament," said Scott Head, Director of Club Operations at Waikoloa Beach & Golf Resort. "We'll all be rooting for them here at Waikoloa."

Designed by Tom Weiskopf and Jay Morrish, the Par 72 Waikoloa Kings' Course is a Scottish-links style layout featuring numerous pot bunkers, undulating fairways, multiple tee placements and lava outcroppings throughout. Upon opening in 1990, the Kings' Course was ranked as one of the top new courses you can play by Golf Digest Magazine.
