Holidays at Waikoloa Resort

New and Favorite Entertainment Options!

Waikoloa Beach Resort earns its moniker, "The Gathering Place of the Kohala Coast," every week of the year by providing an amazing array of entertainment options. There are hula shows, performing musicians, culinary celebrations, and much more. During the holiday season, the normally upbeat resort environment gets even more magical, with shops and restaurants decorated in festive colors and offering special cuisine, tree-lightings, Santa appearances, and musicians playing favorite seasonal songs.

John Keawe, for example, one of Hawai'i Island's favorite guitar players and native sons, is a Grammy-winning slack key guitarist and composer. A regular performer on Waikoloa Resort stages, his 1996 recording, Christmas Is, gained popular acclaim for his enchanting instrumental takes on Christmas songs, and each year he delights resort guests with his renditions.

"For me, Christmas is a family time," Keawe says. "In fact, several of my Christmas songs were inspired by my grandkids. I overheard them wondering how Santa was going to get to the islands, so I wrote "Santa's Coming Over the Rainbow."

THE ULTIMATE MOVIE EXPERIENCE

This winter, a unique new offering will be open for resort guests and the local community: Waikoloa Luxury Cinemas at Queens' MarketPlace. Scheduled to open around the beginning of December — "We don't want to miss the new Star Wars release on December 15!" says Tony Dalzell, who along with his wife, Maria, own the new business — the Cinemas space houses three screens, two of which have 101 seats (one 3-D), and a third at 84 seats. A cocktail lounge and restaurant, Bistro at the specialty, Hatch Chili Lobster Macaroni & Cheese Burritos, will be among the many other unique items available." Although the Bistro will be there to primarily enhance the moviegoers' experience, it is completely open to non-movie goers as well. "It will hopefully become a destination in itself, offering a warm, fun-filled atmosphere with live music every night and very affordable food & beverage options."

FIRST RUN, OF COURSE!

The Waikoloa Luxury Cinemas will be the first business the Dalzells have opened in Hawai'i, although they have been visiting the Waikoloa area annually for past 20 years. "It's become like a second home and we've long thought of retiring here," Tony Dalzell says. "When an opportunity came up to sell our businesses on the mainland, the ability to make the move became a reality.

"However, we both felt that we still needed something to do. As we actively researched potential business opportunities, the idea of a first-run movie theater came to us, as we've long known that there's not much to do after dark on the Kohala Coast. Knowing nothing about the business, we did quite a bit of research on what was behind the standouts in the industry and discovered that all the pieces appeared to be here: a robust tourist market combined with a lack of competition in an entertainment venue.

"During our last couple of visits, we were shown 'The Studio,' a large, ultra-high ceiling space next to the Food Court with an adjoining covered lanai ... it was perfect!"

Just don't ask the Dalzells if they plan to offer first-run films in the Cinemas.

"Of course!" Tony says. "It's funny, everybody asks that question ... like somehow it's preordained that a drive to Kona or Hilo will always be required to see the 'good stuff.' That will be no longer!"

Bistro at the CINEMAS

While the first-run movies will be the main attraction, the culinary offerings are sure to have their own following.

Cinemas, will serve food and drink on a 5,000-square-foot covered outdoor lanai.

"The primary components are love seat-style seating with tray tables and recliners, the availability of gourmet food and alcoholic beverages, but most importantly, reserved seating!" says Dalzell. "No more having to show up early and wait in line to get a decent seat ... just show up when you want, whether before the show to enjoy a cocktail or at the last minute as the curtain is raising — your favorite seat will be there waiting for you."

Ticket prices will range between $12.50 - $18.50, and Kama'aina Cards that provide a 10 percent discount at the concession stand will be available for local patrons.

While the first-run movies will be the main attraction — heretofore the closest theaters were in Kona or Honokaa — the culinary offerings are sure to have their own following. The pizza chef comes to the bistro with more than 10 years of experience in restaurants in California, and the general manager of food and beverage operations comes from the Four Seasons Hualalai, right down the Kohala Coast.

"We'll be specializing in 'fun food' items such as Neapolitan-style pizzas and six to eight different kinds of gourmet tacos," Dalzell says. "Hummus or pub cheese appetizer plates, grilled cheese salted pretzels, salads, and our

HAWAI'I ISLAND FESTIVAL

Three favorite annual events were held at Waikoloa Beach Resort on September 8-9: the 25th Anniversary Kindy Sproat Falsetto Contest, which brought back many past winners to compete in this year's special contest; the Poke Contest, which drew 20 chefs to compete in making the best and most popular poke; and the Ms. Aloha Nui contest, honoring women of great stature who personify the spirit of aloha. All three events were co-sponsored by Waikoloa Beach Resort, Waikoloa Beach Marriott Resort & Spa, and Hawaii Tourism Authority.

Taking home the first-ever "winner of winners" Olelo Hawaii Award in the Kindy Sproat Falsetto Contest was Benson Kam, pictured here with his proud ohana.

The Poke Contest amateur award went to Keali'i Garmon for his Ahi Poke creation. The recipe included sesame oil, olive oil, avocado, inamona (a traditional poke seasoning), green onion, and a wasabi aioli.

ABOVE: Jessica Kunishige of Hilo was crowned the 2017 Ms. Aloha Nui. She clinched the talent portion and tallied the highest combined score of the evening.

Taste the freshest of ingredients harvested from Hawai'i Island farmers including J.A. Farms Garden Salad, Waipio Valley Poi, Keahole Shrimp Hoio, Pulehu steaks, and Grilled chicken with Hamakua mushrooms. See chef roast pork in the resort's imu, the Hawaiian underground oven. Following dinner, journey to Tahiti, New Zealand, Hawai'i and Sāmoa through the songs and dances of these Pacific cultures. The spellbinding Samoan fire dance is a spectacular sight!

General seating prices are $108 for adults, $54 for keiki 6-12 years old, and keiki 5-and-under are FREE. Premier seating includes preferred first row seating, lei greeting and Hawaiian pūpū (appetizer); additional $30 per seat.

Rates do not include Hawai'i state sales tax and are subject to change. Tickets can be purchased from 4 pm on Mondays and Wednesdays at the hotel in our lobby. Seating begins at 5 pm. Large parties are advised to arrive at the lu'au grounds early to accommodate group seating.
